Sundowns Closer To Top 5 In Africa

Mamelodi Sundowns have improved in their position on the African rankings according to footballdatabase.com.

The Brazilians have been on a winning run in all competitions since their Absa Premiership Tshwane derby win on January 19, and their past results have since seen them improve their position on the ranking system.

Sundowns have now moved from eight to seventh according to footballdatabase.com and could possibly end the month even higher, should they get a positive result against Al Ahly in the first leg

Kennedy Mweene

Biography

Kennedy Mweene, the last line of defence within the team, boasts experience and an eye for the ball, above and beyond motivating other players. He believes that a true champion should fight in each and every game, no matter what kind of game it is. When Kennedy is faced with difficult times, he maintains a positive energy and works hard. Throughout a difficult match he tries to remain focused; as being a goalkeeper, one cannot miss an opportunity to focus on the ball.

I made a promise to myself that I would never let the people who support me, down. I always try to push myself

HLOMPHO KEKANA

Biography

Hlompo Kekana, is the steadfast team Captain who keeps the Sundowns ship afloat. He describes the DNA of a champion as one who possess resilience, consistency and team work. He brings to the team, leadership, and his knack for scoring goals. Anthony's moment of struggle came about when he was 17 and first joined a professional team. He later got loaned out to a third division team and the working conditions within that team were not conducive. He overcame that struggle by reminding himself why he started playing football and continued to play each game better than the preceding one and as such, ended up back at top of the league teams once again. During a match, Hlompo is motivated by
